A TIMELY FILED RESPONSE IS NECESSARY FOR A HEARING TO BE HELD.

TO THE HONORABLE H. CHRISTOPHER MOTT, U.S. BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

NOW COMES, Brad W. Odell, the Subchapter V Trustee (“Trustee”) in the above captioned bankruptcy case (the “Case”) and files this First and Final Application for Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses of Brad W. Odell as Subchapter V Trustee (the “Application”), pursuant to section 326 and 330 of title 11 of the United States Code (as amended, the “Bankruptcy Code”), Rule 2014 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), and Rule 2014 of the Local Rules of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Texas (the “Bankruptcy Local Rules”), seeking allowance on a final basis of all the fees and expenses incurred by applicant from August 4, 2021 through January 14, 2022 (the “Compensation Period”), in the amount of total amount of $4,400.07 ($4,349.50 for fees and $50.57 for expenses).

A. Background and Jurisdiction

1. Perseverance Group, LLC (the “Debtor”) filed its voluntary petition for relief under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code on August 4, 2021, in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Texas, El Paso Division. The Debtor elected to proceed under Subchapter V of Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code.

2. On August 4, 2021, Brad W. Odell was appointed as Subchapter V Trustee in this bankruptcy cases [Docket #2].

3. On January 10, 2022, the Court entered its Order Dismissing Chapter 11 Case [Docket # 98].

4. This Court has jurisdiction over this Application pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. Venue for this proceeding is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409. The statutory predicates for the relief sought by this Application are sections 105, 326, and 330(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

B. Employment and Prior Compensation

5. The Trustee has not previously filed an application for compensation as Subchapter V Trustee in this Case.

6. The Trustee has not entered into any agreement, express or implied, with any other party for the purpose of fixing or sharing fees or other compensation to be paid for professional services rendered in this Case.

7. No promises have been received by the Trustee as to compensation in connection with this Case other than in accordance with the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code.

8. The Trustee has not received a pre-petition or post-petition deposit or retainer.

C. Compensation Requested

9. By this Application, the Trustee is seeking allowance of compensation for professional services rendered as Subchapter V Trustee.

10. The Trustee seeks approval on a final basis of the total fees of $4,349.50 for services rendered as Subchapter V Trustee during the Compensation Period and $50.57 for reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses incurred in connection with the rendition of such services, for a total award of $4,400.07.

11. The Trustee's charges for professional services rendered in this case were billed in accordance with the Notice of Appointment of Subchapter V Trustee. The rates for Brad W. Odell, Subchapter V Trustee, are $290.00 per hour.

12. The Trustee submits that this Application complies with Sections 330 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Bankruptcy Local Rules, and the United States Trustee Guidelines.

13. The fees sought by the Application reflect an aggregate of 15.30 hours of time spent in performing services during the Compensation Period.

D. Time Records

14. In support of the Application, attached hereto as Exhibit "A" is the Fee Application Summary, which sets forth a detailed description of services performed by the Trustee.

15. The services performed by the Trustee are detailed in the Trustee's detailed time records during the Compensation Period attached as Exhibit "B."

16. The Trustee submits that the foregoing services were necessary to fulfill his duties as Subchapter V Trustee, were necessary and beneficial to the bankruptcy estates at the time these services were rendered, were performed without unnecessary duplication of effort or expense. The Trustee's request for compensation for the foregoing services is reflective of a reasonable amount of time expended in performing such services commensurate with the complexity, importance and nature of the problems, issues and tasks involved.

E. Standards for the Award of Compensation

17. With respect to the amount of compensation, section 330(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code provides, in pertinent part, that the Court may award to a trustee: "reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered." 11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(1)(A).

18. In turn, Bankruptcy Code section 330(a)(3) provides that in determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded, a Court shall consider the nature, the extent, and the value of the services rendered by the trustee, while taking into account all relevant factors, including the following:

- The time spent on such services;
- The rates charged for such services;
- Whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time which the service was rendered toward the completion of, the chapter 11 case.
- Whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issues or task addressed;
- Whether the trustee has demonstrated skill and experience in consulting within the bankruptcy field; and
- Whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than chapter 11 cases.

11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(3). See also In re Busy Beaver Bldg. Ctrs., Inc., 19 F.3d 833, 850 (3d Cir. 1994) (noting Bankruptcy Code's policy of providing adequate compensation and stating that “Congress rather clearly intended to provide sufficient economic incentive to lure competent bankruptcy specialists to practice in the bankruptcy courts”) (citation and internal quotation marks omitted).

19. In interpreting these authorities to determine an award of compensation, most courts have adopted the standards enumerated in Am. Benefit Life Ins. Co. v. Baddock (In re First Colonial Corp. of Am.), 544 F.2d 1291, 1298-99 (5th Cir. 1977), cert. denied, 431 U.S. 904. The Trustee respectfully submits that, as demonstrated below, the application of these factors to the services performed by the Trustee as the duly appointed Subchapter V Trustee should result in this Court’s allowance of the full compensation sought.

F. Application of the First Colonial Factors

20. The Time and Labor Required. The professional services rendered by the Trustee have required substantial time and effort.

21. The Novelty and Difficulty of Questions. Novel and complex issues have arisen in the course of this case.

22. The Skill Requisite to Perform the Firm’s Services Properly. The Trustee believes that his expertise in the areas of bankruptcy, real estate and commercial law, combined with his approach to the resolution of issues contributed to the protection of the bankruptcy estate’s interests.

23. The Preclusion of Other Employment by Applicant Due to Acceptance of the Cases. To a certain extent, the Trustee appointment precluded other new clients.

24. The Customary Fee. The compensation sought herein is based upon the Trustee’s approved hourly billing rate for services of this kind. The Trustee respectfully submits that the compensation sought herein is not unusual given the magnitude and complexity of this Case and the time dedicated to serving as the Subchapter V trustee. Such compensation is commensurate with fees charged by other firms of comparable experience.

25. Whether the Fee is Fixed or Contingent. The Trustee charges customary hourly rates for his services based on experience and the fee is not outcome-dependent. Pursuant to Sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code, all fees sought by professionals retained under Section 327 or 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code are contingent pending final approval by the Court and are subject to adjustment by the Court depending upon the services rendered and the results obtained.

26. Time Limitation Imposed by Client or Other Circumstances. Occasionally in this case, the Trustee has had to perform its services under significant time constraints.

27. The Amount Involved and Results Obtained. The Trustee worked with counsel for the Debtor, other creditors, and parties-in-interest to work towards the confirmation of a consensual plan; however, the Debtor's case was dismissed after Debtor's counsel withdrew and the Debtor failed to acquire new counsel.

28. The Experience, Reputation and Ability of the Trustee. The Trustee's experience enables him to perform the services described herein competently and expeditiously. The Trustee is experienced and regarded as qualified in the business bankruptcy reorganization field.

29. The "Undesirability" of the Case. This Case was not undesirable, but as already indicated, has required a significant commitment of time from the Trustee.

30. Nature and Length of Professional Relationship. Brad W. Odell was appointed as Subchapter V Trustee on August 4, 2021.

31. Actual and Necessary Expenses. The Trustee has incurred minimal actual and necessary expenses during the course of the Compensation Period.

32. The Trustee spent one and a half hours in preparing this Application and incurred $46.08 in expenses in serving the Application. The Trustee might incur additional fees and expenses if attendance at any hearings thereon is required. The Trustee requests that these fees be paid by the Bankruptcy Estate as an administrative expense and in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code.

WHEREFORE, Brad W. Odell, as Subchapter V Trustee, respectfully requests that the Court enter an order: (a) approving this Application on a “final” basis; (b) allowing Brad W. Odell, as Subchapter V Trustee, a total sum of $4,400.07 consisting of $4,349.50 in fees earned and $50.57 in expenses incurred during the Compensation Period; (c) ordering the Debtor to pay to the Trustee the $4,400.07 in allowed fees and expenses; and (d) allowing such other and further relief to which he is justly entitled.
